Chalet enjoys a privileged location with an incredible view of the Dent du Villard and the valley. Ski in ski out is possible, subject to snow conditions. The chalet is close to the centre of Le Praz village and to the cable car, which takes you to Courchevel 1850 in just a few minutes.

The Irbis chalet is spread over 4 levels around a central staircase. The chalet's chic design architecture features stone and wood cladding and spacious living areas. The interior decor is thought through to the smallest detail, with soft tones and soothing materials.

Chalet offers 5 en-suite bedrooms, including a large Master bedroom that can accommodate 10 guests. At the top, the living space comprises two lounges, an open-plan fitted kitchen and a dining area, all warmed by a central fireplace. The space offers a 360° view thanks to its bay windows that open onto a terrace and balcony with splendid views of the Dent du Villard and the valley.

Back at the chalet, you can relax in the wellness area with steam room and sauna, or sit around the fire in the lounge area. For a comfortable stay, breakfast will be served at the table or on the terrace as soon as you wake up, and a housekeeper will take care of the chalet every day.
