The interior decor is also characteristic of mountain buildings. At the apartment you'll find warm shades and noble materials that forge a cosy ambiance perfect for your holiday.

Although the decor in this duplex is modern, it also incorporates traditional elements with a contemporary twist: the fur blends with the orange colours of the bedrooms, the hides act as rugs and upholstery for the seats... The vast lounge is the perfect place to come together for shared moments of conviviality. Settle down on the large grey sofa or in the orange armchairs, made from hide and leather, for an aperitif full of laughter while the budding chefs among you prepare dinner in the fully-equipped kitchen as they listen to the conversation filtering in from the lounge. Sample one another's recipes in the dining area, seated around the long wooden table as the wooden animals that decorate the walls look on in envy. In the evening, head out onto the balcony and watch the superb sunset that tints the valley, the resort and the mountains in warm colours to form an idyllic decor just for you.
