The outdoor architecture of this large mountain chalet is authentic: its alpine spirit in wood and stone has been kept so the chalet merge in the typical surrounding savoyard décor. The interior is in a complete contemporary style, the quality of this project lies in the high level of details and finishes: blond wood on the walls and ceilings, black slate on the floor, fake fur cushions.

The interior of the chalet is a warmth jewel in light wood giving the chalet a family-friendly and comfortable atmosphere. The furniture is in a chic and contemporary style. Many elements and decorations remind the convivial ambience of a mountain chalet: sofas around the stone fireplace, long table to gather around good meals, dormitory spirit in the children room under the roof.
