Chalet for rent in Meribel with 236 sqm and 5 bedrooms

The chalet located in the popular village of Raffort is a family chalet easily accessible by the slopes. It has been built in a very conservative spirit, all in wood and stone, this Savoyard chalet will bear witness to all the special moments you will share with your family.

The exterior architecture of this family chalet is authentic, its mountain style has been preserved so that it harmonizes with the other chalets in this intimate hamlet. Inside, the decor is very warm: it contains the materials often used in chalets in the mountain like wood, stone and even the floor tiles.

From the living room to various rooms through the relaxation area with jacuzzi, all the furniture is wooden. When you enter the family chalet La Tanière des Ours, you feel this strange but pleasant feeling of getting back to basics, to connect with the natural elements that surround us despite all the modern and upmarket facilities of this family chalet.

Enjoy spacious and numerous luxury facilities offered by the chalet. This family chalet hosts ten people in its five en-suite bedrooms. The living space is located on the ground floor of this chalet. It has a big cozy lounge with a fireplace, its convivial dining room opens onto a terrace facing south. There is also a modern kitchen on this floor.

The top floor of the chalet hosts a large double bedroom with bathroom en suite and mezzanine in which parents naturally choose as their quarters. The whole family will benefit from the relaxation area with jacuzzi and sauna after long days of skiing on the slopes of the Three Valleys.

This large family chalet will appeal to the young and old. Its architecture, natural materials, warm atmosphere and upscale facilities will ensure you have a great holiday.
