Chalet is ideal for a family or a small group of friends. It sleeps 8 with 4 private en-suite bedrooms. From the large open plan dining-living area, which is flooded with natural light throughout the day, you can head out through French doors onto the south facing terrace and absorb the mountainous view of the valley. All this coupled with big comfy sofas and even a drinks bar, make for a very sociable chalet where evenings will be spent recounting the days' adventures around the roaring log fire.
