Chalet is a beautiful chalet in the heart of Meribel. The chalet benefits from professional interior design featuring exposed stone walling, distressed wood panelling, solid oak floors and bespoke furnishings; resulting in a charming, highly individual luxury chalet. There are 5 bedrooms sleeping up to 10 people.

The chalet has an open plan living area with sumptuous leather sofas and arm chairs, a central log burning fireplace and dining table fit for the whole group. There is a breakfast bar area which separates the dining area and the kitchen. Take a seat at the bar with a glass of wine and watch your cook prepare your fabulous dinners in the open plan kitchen.

From the main living space, you will also find large French doors leading out onto one of the chalet's many balconies, offering great surrounding views.

In La Petite Chapelle you have a choice of wellness facilities, you can either stay inside and enjoy the sauna or head out onto the terrace and enjoy the warmth of the large hot tub whilst you take in the views of the nearby peaks. There is also a relaxation area with a TV.

In the chalet, there are five bedrooms. The luxury master bedroom has a sitting area with two armchairs and a log burner for a cosy setting for a good night's sleep. The en-suite bathroom has a bath with mountain views, separate shower, his and hers sinks and a walk in wardrobe. Large picture windows access the private balcony with uninterrupted mountain views. Two of the other bedrooms both have their own en-suites as well - one is a double and the other can be set up in either an Austrian twin or double configuration.

On the top floor of the chalet, two bedrooms can be found in the eaves. One is a twin bedroom whilst the other can be set up in either an Austrian Twin or double configuration. Both bedrooms share a large bathroom with bath, separate rain shower, twin basins and WC.

There is a separate ski and boot room with boot dryers for your comfort.

Prices are based on exclusive use of the chalet to include full chalet catering, selected complimentary drinks and an in resort driver service.
