Chalet, the name meaning 'peaceful paradise', is located a few minutes walk away from Meribel town centre. The chalet has 5 en-suite bedrooms and is spread over 3 floors. With 300m² of space, this chalet is a great choice for a larger group of friends or family who prefer a more traditional style property.

Chalet is a very homely alpine chalet, with a warm and relaxing atmosphere. The open-plan living area features a cosy lounge space with large traditional fireplace and high vaulted ceilings, creating that true authentic chalet feel. Just the other side of the fire, the large wooden dining table takes centre stage within the room and has enough space to seat 10 guests comfortably. Watch over the bar to the chef and host in action preparing your delicious dinner treats.

Also on this floor, there is a charming seating area where members of your group can enjoy catching up over the day's activities or guests can sit peacefully with a book in hand. This space also leads out on to the large terrace where you can enjoy great views over the snow hillside and ski slopes. Make the most of the views, from the outdoor hot tub or generous seating areas with a glass of bubbles in hand. As well as a brilliant outdoor hot tub, the chalet also has a sauna for that ultimate relaxation.

On the ground floor, you will also find a TV lounge where the kids in the group can escape to for a film night or to play a family favourite game.

In total, the chalet offers 5 bedrooms all with en-suite bathrooms, sleeping up to 10 adults. On the first floor, off from the living and dining area, you will find a double bedroom, complete with access to a balcony and en-suite facilities. Making your way upstairs, you'll discover the remaining 4 bedrooms, three of which have access to their own balcony with fantastic panoramic views across the mountains. One bedroom on this floor is a fixed double, the other 3 can be split, if required.
