This chalet has a unique location in the pretty and sun-drenched corner of the main village of Val d'Isère.

Situated over four levels, the entrance leads to a ski room and seating area to take off your skiboots and then access the main floor. On this level there are four bedrooms with king or twin beds, each room with its own bathroom. Two of the rooms have balconies with impressive west facing views to catch the evening sun.

Moving up to the next floor is the fifth bedroom, with king or twin beds and en-suite shower-room, and the main living area. The lounge is double height with large windows to the west and south delivering huge amounts of sun during the spring months. A large oak Savoyard table seats ten people and is located close to the spacious and well-equipped open plan kitchen. Leading out onto the decked balcony, you can enjoy the outdoor hot tub and instantly relax overlooking the resort.

Above the living area is a mezzanine which is a popular tv viewing snug.
