This chalet is an attractive traditional Savoyard chalet, with a real cosy log cabin feel to it. Located in the picturesque setting of the forest of La Tania and with exposed wood beams, pine clad finish, plus a roaring log fire; this chalet will make a wonderful home from home for a ski holiday with family or friends. There are six comfortable bedrooms, spread over two floors and sleeping up to twelve guests, each with an en-suite shower room and WC.

Chalet is located in the charming resort of La Tania, which sits between Meribel and Courchevel as part of the vast Three Valleys ski area. The village itself sits inside the tree-line, its snow-topped pines making this a picture postcard resort, and thanks to its small size, it is incredibly convenient, so you're never far from the slopes or the shops, bars and restaurants at the centre of the village. The chalet itself is set on the peaceful Route du Plan du Saz, just 200 metres from the piste and lift, although for more experienced skiers, it is possible to ski straight back to the chalet off piste through the trees. The main village is only a five minute walk away, so if you're thinking of venturing out for dinner in the evening, you don't have far to go.

Large open plan living space with a comfortable sitting area and flat screen television. There is free WI-Fi throughout the chalet, perfect if you need to work whilst away, or stream your favourite film or TV shows whilst relaxing in front of the roaring fire. Fully-equipped open plan kitchen and dining room, complete with oven, hob, microwave, dishwasher, fridge, freezer, kettle, toaster and cafetière.
