Set in the charming hamlet of Les Brigues, chalet offers the ultimate in luxury and comfort. Extending over 6 floors, with a surface area of 1,100m², it can sleep up to 15 guests in 6 double rooms, with a children's room comprising 3 single beds. The children's room connects with one of the double rooms, creating a family suite. Each room enjoys its own ensuite bathroom, some with bathtubs and others with a double shower.

A whole floor is devoted to the living areas, including a vast lounge featuring several relaxation spaces around an open fire, as well as a light-filled, modern kitchen and dining room. Whilst remaining true to its Alpine heritage, the decor is resolutely contemporary. Weathered wood, wool wall hangings, furnishings with simple lines and soft curves all add to the warm atmosphere. The harmony of the interiors continues all the way to the ski room, designed to welcome you for a moment together before or after you hit the slopes.

From the ski runs... to the beach.

This exceptional chalet's centrepiece has to be its relaxation area. Set around an indoor/outdoor pool, it is also home to a sauna, steam room, gym, and massage room, exuding Mediterranean style, with (real) driftwood, and bright colours. On the wall, images of Pampelonne beach in Saint Tropez, caught at different times, make the illusion seem a reality. And to round off the day, how about a game of pétanque on a Provençal square? Chalet boasts its own indoor pétanque pitch, a nod to the Place des Lys in Saint Tropez.

But you're also there to make the most of the wide-open spaces found at altitude. Chalet enjoys the perfect slopeside location, with the resort of Courchevel, one of the most sought-after resorts by ski and mountain enthusiasts, at the tip of your skis. The resort is part of the exceptional 3 Vallées ski area, that criss-crosses the Courchevel, Méribel and Val Thorens valleys.
